A new republican daily, The Morning News, is about to embark on a sea of uncertainties in Bangor, to be edited by a son of Gen. Charles Hanson.

From every section our correspondents are sending in extremely favorable reports of the growth of potatoes. If we escape a wet spell in August the indications all point to a heavy crop.

Of all the great generals of the war, only one remains. General Sherman still lives, but Grant, Hancock, Logan, Meade, Hooker, Thomas and McClellan, and now Sheridan, have gone to the great beyond.

The most sensational item in the London News is the sale, July 31st, at public auction, of the three-year-old colt Bel Boy, for $40,000, the highest price ever paid in America, and the third highest of which there is any record.

One of our State clergymen just before leaving home, left with the evening paper, the subject of his Sunday morning sermon. "The Blotting out of Newgate."

There is one thing the rank and file of the people have a right to demand, of political managers, that is, that they should rally and be free from drunken distilleries. If this cannot be controlled in any other way we better put a stop to public demonstrations.

The great Grand is jogging along slowly, being jugged by two powerful tugs, sent from New York for that purpose. At last reports the immense structure had passed beyond the mouth of the Maine coast, and was expected to log into New York Harbor at any hour.

Worthy State Master Robb has been unexpectedly, as well as unanimously, nominated by the party to represent him in the next legislature. This insures a champion of grange principles who will guard the interests of the order.

Gov. Marble has made two excellent appointments to fill the vacancies on the board of trustees of the State College, caused by the resignation of Messrs. Eastman and Bangor. The new members are Hon. Fred Atwood of Winterport and Hon. W. H. Stickney of Bangor.

Without regard to parties, the people of Maine will rejoice to learn that President Cleveland and wife are to visit our State during the present month, spending a few days at the residence of Governor Hanson at Bangor, and then visiting the grounds, when thousands will have the opportunity to shake hands with the chief magistrate of the nation, and possibly his charming wife.

The forthcoming term of court in Bangor this month, promises to be one of great interest. Dr. Wood is to have his trial as one of the party. The case is of great importance, and very interesting developments are expected. It will be remembered that Foster and Whitney both confessed the crime, implicating Dr. Wood in the same, and special interest will be the trial of Sutton for the murder of his companion in the postal car.

Mr. Daniel Moody, an aged and respected resident of Dixfield, died at his home on May 27th, aged 87 years, 1 month, and 18 days. He moved to Dixfield in 1801, and lived there for 87 years. He was a devoted Christian, and for many years deacon of the church where he lived. His wife and seven children were left behind.

The able and efficient Secretary of the Provincial Board of Agriculture in New Brunswick, C. H. Lurgin, Esq., is urging the establishment of an agricultural college to combine a practical and experimental farm with a breeding establishment, and in addition furnish instruction in the simpler mechanical arts. It can be secured we know it will be of incalculable good to the agricultural interests of the State.

This is the month for reunions, and the rapidly declining rates of the honored veterans of the late war are a great help. Whenever there is an opportunity to meet remaining comrades, it should be improved. The third annual reunion of the 36th Maine Infantry Association will be held at Bangor, Friday, Aug. 17. The President, J. W. Black, Secretary, says: "We are can, and most expect to provide for each other. This reunion is it hoped every veteran will come, and will also see to it that every veteran of the 'Old Twenty-Sixth' in need of the time and place of meeting."

The races at Fairfield to-day and to-morrow will be well worth a visit. Over eighty entries have been made, and some of the classes will contain twenty horses, thus adding much to the interest of the races. The managers of this park have made up for the want of a grandstand, and in addition furnish a good, honest race track, and the spectators will be well served. At our coming State election, in addition to the State and county officers to be elected, are constitutional amendments to be submitted to the people. To meet the exigencies of the case, however, it was found necessary to provide for each voter in the State, all such amendments as follows:

Shall the constitution be amended as proposed by a resolution of the legislature, providing that the vote shall not be eligible more than six years successively?

What we saw. During an extended trip in New Brunswick, spending the day in the city, and the evening in the country, we saw many things of interest.

At the house of Mr. J. W. Black, we saw many things of interest. The house was built in 1800, and was one of the best of its kind in the city.
